KIAWAH ISLAND TENNIS: A TRADITION OF EXCELLENCE

“NO. 1 TENNIS RESORT IN THE WORLD”
by www.tennisresortsonline.com

Since Kiawah Island's grand opening in 1976, with Roy Barth as our original director, we have strived to be one of the nation's top tennis resorts. A member of TENNIS magazine's "50 Best U.S. Tennis Resorts" for over 30 consecutive years and rated No. 1 in the world by tennisresortsonline.com eight of the last ten years, we offer a wide variety of tennis activities, services and tournaments. Two complete tennis complexes provide convenient access for guests of The Sanctuary at Kiawah Island Golf Resort as well as the resort's private homes and resort villas.

ABOUT THE DIRECTOR

Roy Barth has been director of Tennis at Kiawah Island Golf Resort since 1976. He developed his tennis skills in Southern California where he was a two-time All-American at UCLA. Roy was ranked as high as eighth nationally in men's singles and two in men's doubles and ranked in the top forty in the world on the international men's pro tour. His coaching experience includes assistant varsity men's coach at UCLA and coach of the U.S. Wightman Cup team including Chris Evert. Roy is a Professional Tennis Registry (PTR) Master Pro and currently is serving as President of the PTR until 2018. He was the Chairman of the USTA's Davis Cup Committee from 2009-2014. Roy also has been inducted in the San Diego, South Carolina, and Southern Tennis Halls of Fame.
