

FOUR WAYS TO CELEBRATE THE FESTIVE SEASON ON KIAWAH ISLAND

Kiawah Island, SC, October 26, 2022 – Those seeking to enjoy a winter escape in a subtropical climate need look no farther than Kiawah Island Golf Resort, located in the heart of the South Carolina Lowcountry. During the festive season, the resort offers abundant activities and amenities to engage guests of all ages and interests and create cherished memories.

During this magical time of year, the resort will become bedecked in all of its finery beginning Thanksgiving weekend, which ushers in the season with carolers, a rousing tree-lighting ceremony, a holiday parade and a highly anticipated visit from Mr. and Mrs. Clause.

Offering accommodations including the Forbes Five-Star Sanctuary hotel, one- to four-bedroom villas or expansive homes, the resort is equally suited for couples, immediate family or large multigenerational family gatherings.

Here are four ways guests of every interest can indulge their passions during this special time.

The Epicure

With more than a dozen restaurants spread across the resort, Kiawah Island Golf Resort can satisfy the cravings of the most dedicated foodie. Particularly during Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Year's, the gourmand will thrill at the choices, whether it be a sumptuous Thanksgiving buffet spread at The Sanctuary, a celebratory toast at The Ocean Room Lounge or the Feast of Seven Fishes served at Tomasso, the resort's authentic Italian eatery. The resort's longest running tradition, Mingo Point Oyster Roast & BBQ invites guests to immerse themselves in a time-honored Lowcountry social custom.

The Adventurer

A compelling offering of diverse outdoor pursuits beckon guests to discover the wonders of the mysterious ecosystems the island has so faithfully preserved. Located within the Atlantic Flyway, Kiawah Island is a major stopping point for myriad bird species as they migrate southward for the winter. Birdwatching is just one of many wondrous nature excursions the resort's team of professional naturalists welcome guests to join.

The Artist

Throughout the season, a full schedule of arts-and-crafts workshops invite guests to fully express their creativity. Whether an accomplished artist or a novice who has longed to learn a new craft, Night Heron Park hosts workshops to suit all skill levels. During the holiday season, these creative outlets present the perfect opportunity to create that truly one-of-a-kind gift for the hard-to-shop-for loved one on your holiday list. Creatives on-the-go can pick up cookie decorating kits packed with everything necessary to make their own edible art.

The Athlete

While the island's subtropical climate certainly tempts winter guests to test their skills on the resort's renowned golf and tennis facilities, Kiawah Island Golf Resort has an abundance of other pursuits for active guests. Marking its 44th year, the Kiawah Island Marathon and Half-Marathon has been described as one of the nation's top small marathon and is a Boston Marathon qualifying event sanctioned by the US Track & Field Organization. For something a bit less strenuous, Thanksgiving features a Turkey Trot fun-run, and after a night of revelry New Year's guests of all ages can double up with the Polar Bear Plunge and a fun 5K. And, of course, anytime guests can explore the island's 30-plus miles of paved biking trails.
